C = child

P = parent

C: From next term ... apartment close to school ... no more dorm

P: Isn't dorm convenient? Why move out?

C: fang1bian4, all right, but eating ... big problem. No kitchen, must eat at cafeteria: expensive, not tasty. Can't stand eating there everyday!

P: Picky. So busy, no time to buy food and cook!

C: 5 people taking turns. Each person cook one dinner; sandwiches for breakfast and lunch, really simple.

P: Easier said than done!

C: decided to take one kitchen utensil each. Aren't there 2 microwave ovens at home? Give me the smaller one?

P: Sure. Not used in a while, don't know if works. Any furniture?

C: bed, desk, book shelf, 2 chairs, table lamp, no carpeting

P: carpeting doesn't matter much. The other four people?

Do I know them?

C: Susan, Mary, David, ...

P: What! Nan2.de?

C: sophomore; hang out with each other, nice person.

P: Male+female living together? How many baths?

C: Just one.

P: Nan2 nu3 using the same bathroom? You'd better think again!

C: Doesn't matter. Same in dorms. Test tomorrow, must hang up.

P: okay...
