

21A.226
Second Written Assignment

Choose three cases of violent ethnic conflict taking place in the world today or in very recent history. The cases may be any of the types described in lectures 10 and 11. Describe the present situation, providing some history. Describe how your sources (the authors you cite) analyze the causes of the conflicts. Then compare the conflicts, paying particular attention to the literature you cite. If you can, comment on the authors' presentations of the cases.

You must cite four authors in addition to at least two authors in the course syllabus. You may, but do not have to, select one or two cases from course readings.

No judgmental language or opinions of your own (about who is right, more moral, etc.) until the final paragraph.

7 or more pages.
